CODE OF ETHICS

- Positive behavior is a key expectation for youth and adults participating in this pre-college program. Positive behavior reflects trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship. Participants are expected to fully participate, follow all program guidelines and behave appropriately to ensure a high-quality learning experience and ensure the safety of all participants.
- Theft, vandalism, the use of illegal drugs and alcohol, leaving the program premises or boundaries (except for trips arranged as part of the program) and other such offenses are strictly prohibited. Anyone involved with these offenses will immediately be sent home at his or her own expense. Those engaged in illegal activities will be turned over to the proper authorities. Repair costs for damages incurred to property will be billed to those responsible.
- You may be sent home for inappropriate sexual behavior and behavior that violates the rights of others, particularly when the behavior is disrespectful as regards a person's gender, race, age, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, disability or appearance. You may not tease, hurt or bully anyone, or use language, gestures or actions that will hurt others. Disciplinary action will vary based on the degree of the offense and will be determined by the program staff in charge.
- Housing/sleeping areas are set up as all female and all male. Participants are not permitted in the housing/sleeping areas assigned to members of the opposite sex.
- Participants are responsible for their own belongings. Valuables, such as expensive jewelry and electronic devices, should be left at home. MSU will not be responsible for any lost or missing items.
- Participants should dress casually, but neatly and appropriately, for the occasion. Shirt and shoes must be worn in eating areas.

All participants are expected to:

- Quiet hours are from 11:15 p.m. to 7 a.m. Everyone is to be in his or her own assigned room during these hours.
- Staff are responsible for enforcing the rules as stated. Violators who are asked to leave will be sent home at their own expense. These rules are not subject to interpretation and each program participant is expected to follow them without exception. Our primary consideration is to provide a safe, secure environment for all participants.

I have read and agree to abide by the code of conduct included on the last page of this application.
